PreveCeutical Initiates Non-Addictive Analgesic (Painkiller) Program Clinical Development Program & Disclosure Committee

Vancouver, British Columbia: PreveCeutical Medical Inc. (the “Company” or “PreveCeutical”) (CSE: PREV, OTCQB: PRVCF, FSE: 18H), is pleased to announce that PreveCeutical commenced clinical work with our selected clinical research organization (CRO) as announced on February 7, 2023, to complete the following.

- Conduct a comprehensive gap analysis to both confirm current conclusions as well as identify any potential additional nonclinical studies (beyond those already underway or in the planning stage) that will be needed to support a successful initial IND and/or CTA submission.
- Construction of a clinical development plan for Phase 1 through pivotal Phase 3 studies.
- Authoring of the Investigational Brochure for the Client’s lead peptide in the final indication of interest

PreveCeutical has now commenced the clinical development on March 20, 2023. This work is being performed at our selected CRO’s facilities in Australia.

Furthermore, the board of directors appointed a disclosure committee represented by Stephen Van Deventer, Dr Linnea Olofsson and Evan Ballantyne effective immediately.

PreveCeutical’s Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Stephen Van Deventer, commented, “As we continue to meet further milestones, we are enthusiastic that this program has commenced as we plan to aggressively pursue the development so we may apply for IND (Investigative New Drug) status and complete the Phase 1 clinical trials.”

Forward-Looking Statements:

This news release contains forward-looking statements and forward-looking information (collectively, “forward-looking statements”) within the meaning of applicable Canadian and US securities legislation, including the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements in this news release that are not purely historical are forward-looking statements and include statements regarding beliefs, plans, expectations and orientations regarding the future, including, without limitation, matters related to the Company’s current and planned research and development programs, including the Analgesic Program, the Company’s anticipated business plans and its prospect of success in executing its proposed plans. Often, but not always, forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as “will”, “plans”, “expects”, “may”, “intends”, “anticipates”, “believes”, “proposes” or variations of such words including negative variations thereof and phrases that refer to certain actions, events or results that may, could, would, might or will occur or be taken or achieved. Forward-looking statements are based on certain assumptions regarding the Company, including expected growth, results of operations, including the Company’s research and development activities, performance, industry trends, growth opportunities, and that the Company will be able to obtain the financing required to carry out its planned future activities, retain and attract qualified research personnel and obtain and/or maintain the necessary intellectual property rights it needs to carry out its future business activities.

Actual results could differ from those projected in any forward-looking statements due to numerous factors including, risks and uncertainties relating to the Analgesic Program, complexities and delays in connection with research and development activities and the actual results of research and development activities, and the inability of the Company, to, among other things, obtain any required governmental, regulatory or stock exchange approvals, permits, consents or authorizations required, including Canadian Securities Exchange acceptance of any planned future activities, commercialize therapeutic and diagnostic technologies, execute its proposed business plans, pursue business partnerships, complete its research and product development programs as planned, including the Analgesic Program, and obtain the financing required to carry out its planned future activities. Other factors such as general economic, market or business conditions or changes in laws, regulations and policies affecting the healthcare and cannabis industries in Canada may also adversely affect the future results or performance of the Company. These forward-looking statements are made as of the date of this news release and, unless required by applicable law, the Company assumes no obligation to update the forward-looking statements or to update the reasons why actual results could differ from those projected in these forward-looking statements. Although the Company believes that the statements, beliefs, plans, expectations, intentions, and assumptions contained in this news release are reasonable, there can be no assurance that those statements, beliefs, plans, expectations, intentions, or assumptions will prove to be accurate. Readers should consider all of the information set forth herein and should also refer to other periodic reports provided by the Company from time-to-time. These reports and the Company’s filings are available at www.sedar.com.

Readers are cautioned that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance or events and, accordingly, are cautioned not to put undue reliance on forward-looking statements due to the inherent uncertainty of such statements.
